

George Fuller Cridlin

March 10, 1947 - December 14, 2018

George Fuller Cridlin, 71, of Jonesville, Va., passed away on Friday, Dec. 14, 2018 in Durham, N.C.

A lifelong resident of Southwest Virginia, George spent more than four decades in private practice as an attorney, following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather, and served 33 years as the attorney for the town of Jonesville. He was also chairman of the board of directors of Powell Valley National Bank, helping lead its expansion in Southwest Virginia and Northeast Tennessee.

A 1965 graduate of Jonesville High School, where he was a student leader and athlete, George graduated from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn. There he met a young woman from Florida named Karen, who would become his wife of 47 years. They lived for stretches in her hometown of Belle Glade, Fla., where they were married; Richmond, where he graduated from the T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond; and Colorado Springs, where he served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers during the Vietnam War; before returning to Jonesville.

George was active in many civic organizations and community institutions, including Jonesville First United Methodist Church, the Jonesville Town Council, the Lions Club and the Virginia Coalfield Economic Development Authority. He was an avid lover and supporter of local sports; an aficionado of autos, antiques and community history; and above all a lover of people. He was curious and generous, a man who formed fast and long-lasting friendships with strangers, as comfortable with coal miners and mechanics as senators and governors. Every day of his life, he lived to be out and involved in his community.

George passed peacefully at the Duke Cancer Institute in Durham, N.C., Karen by his side. His family is humbled and grateful for the many prayers and kind thoughts sent their way.

George and Karen had two sons: Jay, a journalist in St. Petersburg, Fla.; and Fuller, who is the Commonwealth's Attorney for Lee County. He is also survived by Jay's wife, Shelley, and their children, Josie and Cameron; Fuller's wife, Jalan; and a sister, Josephine Roddenberry. He was preceded in death by his parents, Judge Joseph N. and Fay Cridlin.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 18, at Jonesville First United Methodist Church, 100 Church St., Jonesville. The funeral service will be held at the church at 10 a.m., Wednesday, Dec. 19, with the Rev. Layne Pennington officiating. Interment will follow at Lee Memorial Gardens in Pennington Gap, with the Rev. Tracy McPherson officiating.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, donations may be made to Jonesville First United Methodist Church or Covenant Mountain Mission Bible Camp, 2390 Horse Hollow Road, Jonesville, Va., 24263.

“ As some people journey throughout their life, they leave footprints wherever they may go, footprints of Kindness, Love, Humor, Joy, Courage, Compassion, Inspiration & Faith. Now that they have been called home & have left us with so much sorrow, we can look back & see a path they do clearly left behind. A path with Love, Hope, & Faith that invites us to follow. And may we know that our cherished memories comfort us during our time of grief & know that we will all soon meet again. With Love & Prayers to the
Cridlin Family
Sincerely

“ I am so saddened to hear of the passing of George. He and I became friends years ago when we lost weight together in the liquid diet program - lol. We became fast friends and I always loved seeing him. I work for the school system in Scott County and would always see him at sporting events and looked for him at every trip to Lee High. We always shared a hug and a laugh. I know your hearts are broken and I will surely miss looking for that bear hug and smile from my friend. May the grace of God and his wonderful memory bring you peace. I will always smile when I think of him. Your family will remain in my thoughts and prayers.

“ George was my best (JHS) high school buddy and a dear friend for life since the day we met at Bible Camp in 1960. He loved the gridiron and we would talk hours about the good old day, as well as our kids playing sports. George was an awesome, unselfish, a Great Man. I feel so blessed as many of his friends do to have shared a few moments of our lives together with such a man. My prayers are with the Cridlin Family during this sad time and I will miss my dear friend. "Love Uman", Keith Sargent, Hartwell, GA

“ George and I grew up together spending most week-ends and snowed in weeks at the Banner farm on Wallens Creek. We snow sledded off the mountain and tracked animal prints in the snow until we were frozen. What wonderful memories I have of George who was like a brother to me. I am grieving right along with his family as he was my family too. You are in my prayers daily and know that he was a great man. Love Anne Banner Campbell, Jackson, Tn.
