“ I met Mary Cole at the 4-H Southern Regionals horse show, I mostly called her Cole since we both had the same middle name, we got to know each other pretty well and chances were that if you saw one of us the other was close by, we became close friends in just a matter of minutes, I started looking through my contacts to see if I still had her number earlier today just to touch base with her but I got a new phone and it wasn't saved, so I pulled her name up on the Internet and when I saw the headline I hoped that it'd be someone else so I opened it to prove to myself that it was someone else but my heart stopped the moment I saw the picture of her and her horse, the same horse that she won reining on that year at regionals, RIP Mary Cole, you will never be forgotten!!!

“ Mary,
Please feel my hug. My daughter Hannah and I had the great privilege of spending time with Mary Cole in Georgia at the 4-H Southern Regional's. She was a pleasant surprise to our hussle and bussle of the show. May God be with you in this time of healing. Hold the memories close and carry on for Mary Cole.

“ Sincere condolences for your loss. Proverbs 17:22 says "a joyful heart is good medicine", therefore, may precious memories bring you joy and warm your heart. It may be comforting to know that others, even those you may not know, are thinking of your family at this most difficult time. Our loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon all pain and sorrow associated with death will be a thing of the past. Revelation 21:4 states "and he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". The tears spoken of here are not tears of happiness and joy, but tears of mourning, outcry, sorrow and pain. 1 John 4:8 says God IS love. It is that love that moved Him to send his only begotten son, Jesus Christ, as a ransom sacrifice so those who have fallen asleep in death might have the hope of the resurrection, and that hope is found at Acts 24:15. The hope and promises found in these Scriptures are guaranteed, because Titus 1:2 states "God cannot lie". As you grieve, may Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. (tallchea@att.net)

We met Mary Cole at her sister Julia's and my brother Jeramy's wedding. She was a lovely young woman, and Heaven has surely gained a beautiful angel.

“ Mary, I am deeply saddened by your tragic loss. It is very difficult to find any words to share only because I know that no one can truly know the pain that you are feeling. Any words that I find seem so trivial compared to the anguish that I know is in your heart. If there is anything that I could say it is that I wish that I could be there for you now to give you a hug. I'm thankful that your family is around you and I hope that in time it will not be as raw as it is now. Love, Rosanne Wright

“ Mary and her boyfriend were frequenters in the MECC library. Everyone always thought they were so cute together. I never talked to her but a few times but the fact that I won't see her anymore and knowing how hurt her loved ones must be is truly upsetting. The library and MECC send their condolences.

“ Sometimes God picks the flower that is still in full bloom;
Sometimes the rosebud's chosen, we feel He's picked too soon.
Sometimes the flower is fading with petals floating down,
But God knows the perfect time to gather flowers from the ground.
There is a heavenly garden in which God takes great pleasure
Because He's placed within it the loved ones that we treasure.
He walks among the blossoms giving them eternal rest,
And I know that it must please Him
Because He chose our very best.

“ I loved Mary Cole's bright smile and can-do attitude. I remember an ODPOAC show at which she and Hippy Hippy Shake were doing an over-fences course, and Mary Cole looked slightly less focused than usual but completed all eight jumps. When she rode out of the ring, she told us she had a bee inside her shirt that had been stinging her the whole time! I hope I can do as well completing tasks that I set for myself. Her bright light will shine on in all our memories.

“ I remember Mary Cole on TLF Jammin Jasper as she moved from leadline to walk/trot. He wasn't a particularly easy pony, but one thing that never changed about MC in all the years I knew her was THAT SMILE. I was blessed to know her, blessed to have had her gentle spirit and irrepressible sense of humor shine on my path every time it crossed hers. She will be forever missed and forever loved. The world is better because she was in it.

“ There are so many memories that I can think about when I think of Mary Cole. I have known her and cared about her both in my youth as the little baby I once held and the young woman I had the privilege of coaching in our little drama group. For me, Mary Cole has always represented determination and fearlessness to be her own individual. Even as a child, she went her own path.

My clearest memories as a young woman of Mary Cole are ones that make me smile. As the youngest in a brood of cousins older and rowdier, Mary Cole could hold her own. I think one of my favorites memories is when my youngest brother Jonah and her cousin Adam were in high school. Her uncle Joe had a pizza in his hand and you could just tell Mary Cole wanted a piece. So she slides over to Joe to see if he would spare a slice. Of course, Joe told her "No. Slap your face Weasel!" as only Joe can do. Mary Cole didn't miss a beat, and you can just see her start to work on him. She did end up with a slice of pizza, but it always stuck in my mind that she would do what she wanted and would not be deterred.

The world will miss this lovely and unique woman who knew how to be both sweet and strong, determined yet kind. A rare combination that will be sorely missed.
