“ I will not remember a moment about Allan, rather Allan as a whole. He was an amazing person! He was a friend and a mentor. He had a large heart that never seemed to stop giving or caring about those that got close to him. Need a shirt, have mine. Need a listening ear, have mine. Need advice (even questionable), here it is. He was a genuinely good person that put others first and in today's world that is rare. Allan will live on in our hearts and memories.
