

Allison Devon Miles

November 7, 1972 - December 12, 2025

Allison Devon Miles, 52, of Jonesville, VA, passed away on Friday, December 12, 2025, following a lengthy illness.

She was born in Kingsport, TN on November 7, 1972 to the late William "Bill" Miles and Beulah Miles.

To know Allison was to love her there was no other way around it. If you spent any time with her, you were almost guaranteed to be laughing, smiling, or both. And if you weren't, she'd probably call you out for being a stick in the mud. Her sass was unmatched, and she wore it with pride.

But beneath that sass was the biggest heart. Allison had a way of seeing the good in everyone, even when it was hard to find. She and Granny raised more kids than anyone could count, loving them fiercely and without condition.

You never had to wonder if Allison loved you. Her love was loud, constant, and unconditional. She told you every day, showed you every day, and made sure you felt it deep in your soul. Being loved by Allison was a gift and losing her leaves a hole that words can't fully describe.

She is survived by her husband of 24 years, Samuel Marcum; daughter, Kadance Marcum, of the home; four sisters, Anita Creech, of Jonesville, Alma

Stout and husband, James, of Advance, NC, Teresa O'Donnell and husband, Hugh, of St. Paul, VA, and Mary Diffenderfer and husband, Curtis, of Jonesville; brother, Dwight Dingus and wife, Beth, of Kingsport, TN; nieces and nephews, Tyler Lane (Taylor) and their daughter, Millie, Harley Spears, Amanda Lane, Corey Diffenderfer (Chelsea), Jordan Diffenderfer (Madison) and their children, Devin and Carson, Brooke Gibson (Allen) and their children, Ella and Abel, Brandon Miles (Kaley) and their children, Keldon and Braylee, Anna Stout-Mason (Cody), April Stout, Matt Stout, Bo Stout, Lucas Banner, Lance Stout (Katie), Maddie Davidson (Joey), Emily Edmunds (Gabe), Jacob Dingus; and several other extended family members.

“ Allison and I grew up together. Our days on the ridge will always leave great memories. We could go a long time without seeing each other and always pick up right where we left off. She always made me laugh and smile. A precious soul gone too soon! Prayers for the family!

“ To know Alley was to love her! No matter what life threw at her, she kept her sass and positive attitude and still wanted to make others happy. We share so many memories together through the years and the world just seems a little less sunny without knowing you're in it, Alley! I know you are without all the pain you endured and hanging out with your mom and daddy! You will be so missed!

*Sam & Kadence and the whole family.... I am praying for you!
Prayers of comfort to you all!*

“ The first time I met Allie was in my beauty shop. Her laugh, humor, personality were infectious. She was so full of joy! So full of life! I loved listening to her stories and just being around her. She radiated warmth and acceptance, something that is in short supply in this cold world. She was a true friend and will be deeply missed, so deeply missed.
