“ She was my teacher at Beech Springs Elementary in the 50s. She was a very sweet lady and I never forgot her.

“ I just found out Saturday, April 23rd that Ms. Alma had passed away. My heart is just broken! She was the sweetest lady that I have ever met in my life and I really enjoyed seeing her on days that I delivered the mail on that route. She was the highlight of my day. I knew something was wrong on April 16th when I stopped to deliver her mail and she wasn't there to greet me. Ms. Alma, I miss your kind, sweet words and that cheerful personality you possessed. RIP my dear friend, I will see you again someday. Heaven is a much better place I'm sure with you there now. ;)
