

Arline Hall

May 27, 1938 - October 31, 2024

We are sad to announce that on October 31, 2024, at the age of 86, Arline Hall, of Jonesville, Virginia, went to be with the Lord in her home surrounded by family and friends.

She was born to Sanford "Bud" Speck and Eula Robbins Speck on May 27, 1938. She married Forrest "Ed" Hall on June 20, 1955, and they had one son, Dwight.

Arline was preceded in death by her husband, Ed Hall and her son, Dwight Hall, her parents; Sanford "Bud" Speck and Eula Robbins Speck, her siblings; Charlie Speck, Sam Speck and spouse, Betty Williams, Quintin "Tub" Speck and spouse, Faye Speck, Don Speck, Sue Dean and spouse, Aubra Paul Dean, Virginia "Flippo" Speck, her brother-in-law, Dale Garrett, and good friend, Linda Bacon.

She is survived by her granddaughter Alexandra "Ali" Hall and daughter-in-law, Jackie Hall both of Beverly, West Virginia; her sister, Irene Garrett, of Morristown, Tennessee and a host of special nieces, nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews, and Philip Pridemore, who she thought of like a son. Her special friends, Bob and Charles Lee Burchett, Sharon Jerrell, her niece, Donna Kolb, who looked after her, and nephew, Tracy Garrett and wife, Connie, who took care of her until the end.

Arline enjoyed life and was known for being a shrewd business woman who started out working for herself as a beautician. She and Ed ran several small businesses in the community. She loved spending time with family and friends. Arline enjoyed a good yard sale, whether it was her own or someone else's. She had an extraordinary memory and a witty sense of humor. Arline ran a tight ship and expected everyone to work as hard as she did.

Arline was a member of Miller's Chapel Church and attended Rose Hill Christian Church.

The family will receive friends from 2 until 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 2, 2024, at Robinette Funeral Home in Jonesville. The funeral service will begin at 4:00 p.m. with Tracy McPherson officiating. Graveside services will follow at Miller's Chapel Cemetery.

Pallbearers are David Cline, Brian Dean, Tracy Garrett, Steve Kenworthy, Sidney Kolb, Randy Speck. Honorary pallbearer will be Howard Russell.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to Dr. John Scott Litton, Jr. and his staff, especially Kayla Stapleton, Amedisys Healthcare, Jonesville Drug, and Caris Hospice, for all their care and support during Arline's illness.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Millers Chapel Cemetery Fund, P.O. Box 34, Jonesville, VA 24263, or to a charity of your choice.

“ Ali, your grandmother was many things to me. She was a boss because she gave me my first job when I was probably too young to work. I might add she taught me to do everything the correct way. She was a mother, she took us many places like the theater and the swimming pool, but never failed to get on me when I was doing wrong. She was a referee because your dad and I fought like brother and sister. But mostly she was my friend and I loved her. I will never forget her, her generosity, her wisdom, or the love that she gave me.

“ Praying for the family. What a glad reunion day. Many good memories of visiting with Mammow (Aunt Fannie) as a child. Getting to play with Traci(Ace) and visit Arlenes usually at uncle Eds grocery. She was one of the smartest women I ever knew and could stand her ground against anyone. Look forward to meeting her again one day and hearing her say Lannie. She was tough overcame more than most could have stood but with dignity and style beyond words by Gods Amazing Grace . Resting in the arms of Jesus . Heaven is her home. 💕💕
