“ Loved my Aunt Betty. She was my consummate defender against my mom when I was bad. She took me to get Slushies, make me mashed potatoes, and otherwise spoiled me even more rotten than I already was. She loved her nieces and nephew, having had no children of her own. She spoiled us all. Her passing has impacted me more than I could have imagined as the adult I am now, as I realize more of what made me who I am today is leaving this earthly place.
