“ I was a fortunate neighbor of Don & Betty Sue's for 25 years. I remember having a cooking lesson in her kitchen teaching me to make her delicious fried pies, which she made frequently brought to me & made for church functions. She was a beautiful, sweet lady & friend to me. She will surely be missed by friends & family, but heaven gained another precious angel. Prayers & love to her family.

“ My Aunt Betty Sue, to me, was a proverbial woman. I remember her always with a smile. I remember her cooking and serving some good food....especially the white beans and cornbread! 😊 I remember being at her house in Fleenor Town, VA watching The Wizard of Oz and being scared. I remember Betty Sue giving to so many, serving God and always showing love to all. Aunt Betty Sue...I love you and please hug my Dad. ❤️
