

Billie Ann Williams

September 25, 1936 - September 2, 2021

Billie Ann Williams, 84 years old, of Rose Hill, Virginia, has taken her final journey on September 2, 2021. She was preceded in death by her parents; Taft Bales and Pearl Roller Fletcher; son, Terry Williams; and husband, Lloyd Freeman Williams, Senior. Later in life, she was blessed to reunite with her high school sweetheart, Jack Brooks, who has also passed on.

She leaves behind two sons, Lloyd (Pete) and Jeff Williams; seven grandchildren, Bambi (Brandon) Lowe, Nicholas Williams, Lydia (Matt) Johnson, Derek (Heather) Williams, Chasney (Lynn) Hornsby, Greta (Brandon) Johnson, and Emily Leatherberry; great-grandchildren, Amanda Alford, Alexa Alford, Tyson Alford, Katie Shelby, Azrael Williams, Kinley Carter, Kaydence Williams, Mason Johnson, Aubrey Hornsby, Juliette Santiago, Xavier Santiago, Hailey (Brandon) Story, Bailey (KJ) Reisinger, Tylor Carter, and Blaine Lowe; great-great grandchildren, Jaxson Alford, Aurora Griffin, Azlyn and Roman Willis, Amelia, Oliver, and Jasper Story; and a host of grand pups.

Billie Ann worked as a bank teller for 46 years. She loved her children and grandchildren fiercely. She was also a grandmother to many neighborhood kids she loved dearly. She was always passionate and energetic about spending time with her family. She shared her love for camping, swimming, sight-seeing, and traveling with them all, but nothing compared to her love of music. It “tickled her right good” to watch them play instruments and sing. She tapped her toes and sang along to every note she heard. It wouldn’t be a surprise to learn that she tapped her toes right into heaven.

She played piano for her church, Calvary Baptist, in Rose Hill, VA, where she was also saved many years ago. She played in many churches in the area and many community events. Known as “Honky Tonk Billie” to her friends, she looked forward to “going to music” every chance she had. She played the piano for close to 80 years. She had a style that is unmatched. If she didn’t know it, she would “jump in there and hang on”. There wasn’t much that music couldn’t fix for her. No doubt, the highlight of her musical ecstasy is now the Heavenly Choir.

The family will receive friends from 1 until 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 5, at Robinette Funeral Home in Rose Hill. A service celebrating her life will begin at 3:00 p.m. in the funeral home chapel with Bro. Ronnie Sizemore officiating. Music will be provided by her friends and bandmates. A graveside service will follow in Morgan Cemetery.

“ Mom and I just found out Billie Ann passed. I am so sad and so sorry to hear. I have wonderful memories of Billie Ann growing up. Especially playing music. My grandfather John Roller was her mom Pearl's, brother. I just wanted to let the family know that we are so so sorry to hear. Much love to you all!❤️❤️

“ So sorry for your loss. but our loss is Heavens gain. I will never forget a few weeks ago we gathered at Bambi and Brandon's house and sister Billie Ann was there and she started playing the keyboard. soon we had a lead guitar, flat top guitar, a drum player and everyone was singing along, what a time. I was looking forward to another gathering like that down here, but the Lord had other plans. So we will look forward to a gathering around the throne with sister Billie Ann. Our prayers are with all the family and friends.

So sorry for your loss. I meet her while she was playing piano at the deli in Jonesville. Loved the way she played.
