

Billy Lee Standifer

December 7, 1953 - June 24, 2021

Billy Lee Standifer, born December 7, 1953 and went home on June 24, 2021. Billy is one of God's miracles. He had fluid on his brain at five days old, spending months in Charlottesville Hospital. The doctor told dad and mom he wasn't and couldn't live but with God's grace and his family's love and attention, he continued to grow, but his brain remained the same. Mom and others continued to pray all the while Billy was in God's hands. He was over seven when began to start walking, which took a long time with all he went through, leaving him crippled on his right side. One medical issue after another, doctor after doctor, God stayed in control. Long nights and days at times, but mom and his loved ones never gave up on him nor lost our trust and faith in God. His life for the last year went downhill with one hurdle after another but with him being God's child, he remained with us until God took him home.

Billy is preceded in death by his parents, Raymond and Bonnie Lee Pearson Standifer; a brother, Ed Lewis Standifer; a sister, Mary (Johnny) Osborne; a sister-in-law, Barbara Standifer and a brother-in-law, Henry Mullins.

He is survived by his sister, Sue Sweeney, with whom he shared his life and love for over 24 years, as well as Sue's granddaughter, Kaylena Foster and his nephew, Mark Sweeney; he has two other sisters, Junie Mae Carnes of Pennington Gap, VA and Nancy Mullins of Jonesville, VA; three brothers, Ray Standifer of Rose Hill, VA, John Paul Standifer (Kathy) and Richard Standifer (Ginger) both of Jonesville, VA; a very special aunt, Nancy Freeman of Dryden, VA; a special niece, Amanda Foster and her daughter, Kristen Foster; many nieces and nephews and extended family and friends.

“ I will always remember his laugh when we, his nieces and nephews, were young and he was able to chase us around the yard. He always laughed when any of the kids got into trouble. He would pinch any of us if he got the chance. I always acted afraid of him, which he loved, but who could be afraid of someone so special. Watching my dad teach him to untie your shoes when you sat next to him was so funny. You will be missed but I don't cry for you, I cry for me but I know you are in heaven and I know your running and laughing without any problems. I will see you again. Love you and will miss you.
