

Carrie Mae Minton White

October 4, 1932 - November 6, 2025

Carrie Mae Minton-White, age 93, of Jonesville, VA, passed away peacefully on Thursday, November 6, 2025.

Born on October 4, 1932, in Pennington Gap, VA, Carrie was mostly raised in Left Hand Poor Valley, just a stone's throw from the boy next door who would become the love of her life - her husband, Charles. Together, they traveled the world and built a life full of laughter, love, and legendary peanut butter fudge.

Carrie was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved Charles; her siblings, sisters Jean Mohr, Betty Smith, Ruby Collins and Lorene Wilso; brothers Bruce Minton and John Minton; and a special brother-in-law, Alan Mohr. She leaves behind a family as large as her heart: her children Karen Keller (and her partner Joe Wells), Richard White (and his wife Amy), and Randy White (and his partner Darlene Kammer); her grandchildren Kathleen Wendt, Barbara Cupp, Lynn Holmes, Susan Keller, Gretchen Cope, Sarah Derrick, William White, Carrie Smith, Jessica Ciambrone, and Erin Fallon; and a joyful abundance of great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; all of whom will carry on her legacy of love and family.

Carrie had a sharp wit, a kind soul, and a sense of humor that could brighten even the gloomiest day. She loved fiercely, laughed often, and never missed a chance to spend time with her loved ones.

Her family will gather for a funeral service at Robinette Funeral Home in Jonesville, VA at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 11, with Pastor Paul Davis Jr. officiating. A brief graveside service will follow at Lee Memorial Gardens in Woodway. In true Carrie fashion, it will be short, sweet, and full of love. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to a veteran's organization of your choice, in honor of Charles' service in the United States Air Force.

Carrie's laughter and love will echo in the hearts of all who knew her.
