Clara Bell Hill, 85, of Kingsport, TN passed away on Friday, February 6, 2015 at her home surrounded by her family.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Andy and Ella Hill; three sisters, Ethel McPherson, Ruby Wallen and infant sister Betty Hill; five brothers Floyd Hill, William Hill, Eugene Hill, Jay Hill and Joe Hill.

Survivors include one sister, Gladys Falin and her husband Norman of Kingsport, TN, who were her caregivers; one brother, Jim and wife Wanda Hill of Bean Station, TN; many nieces nephews, cousins and friends.

Clara was a member of Big Door Blackwater Lick Primitive Baptist Church. She was a farmer and a retiree of Pins and Needles Sewing Factory in Blackwater, VA and of Harvest Inn, Sykesville, MD.

She loved sewing, cooking, singing, listening to gospel music and taking care of her dogs, Tootsie, Reagan and George. She was also a caregiver to her family.

The family will forever be grateful for having Clara in their lives. We already miss her quick wit, humor, talent, friendliness and opinions on politics.

The family will receive friends from 1 until 2:00 p.m. Sunday, February 8, at Robinette Funeral Home in Blackwater, VA. The funeral service will follow at 2:00 p.m. with Elder Gregory Hill officiating. Music will be under the direction of Audrey Hill and community choir. The graveside service will follow in the Austin Bledsoe Cemetery with family and friends serving as pallbearers.

The family would like to thank Dr. Peter Platzer, Amedisys Home Health and Hospice and to everyone who had a part in her healthcare – especially her nurses, Becky and Jeff.
