

Curtis Wayne Wilder Jr.

February 28, 1962 - December 28, 2020

Curtis Wayne Wilder, Jr., age 58, passed away on December 28, 2020.

He was born on February 28, 1962 in Middlesboro, KY to Curtis Wayne Wilder, Sr. and Margaret Wilder Ayers.

Curtis is survived by his loving wife of 39 years, Joyce Wilder, of Rose Hill, and their daughter, McKenzie Kay Wilder, of Atlanta, GA. Curtis is also survived by his mother, Margaret Wilder Ayers, two sisters, Tina Wilder and Roseanna Burris, all of Waynesburg, PA, and many other loving family members. He was preceded in death by his father, Curtis Wayne Wilder, Sr.

Curtis never met a stranger and his generosity was extended not only to family and close friends, but also to anyone in need. He was a loving husband and father, a protective and caring son and brother, and a loyal friend to those he loved. He was truly a jack of all trades who never met a task he couldn't complete – and he was always right about it. Curtis' giving heart and jovial laugh will be missed by all.

A private graveside service will be held in the Wilder-Hensley family cemetery with Rev. Carlos Wolfe officiating.

“ Curt was a good guy and I'm glad I got to know him. He loved his family deeply and was very proud of both Joyce and McKenzie. He would help folks out whenever he thought they needed his help and never expect anything in return. I once told him my yard was overgrown from the rain and my lawnmower on the blink. He offered to bring his tractor and bush hog over and mow it. That's the sort of guy he was. He had a good and generous heart and will be missed.
