My love and sympathy to the Arnett family. I am very sorry for your loss. Flatwoods was a very close knit school and community and Mr. Arnett was loved by all. I was friends with Marie and Diana for many years, especially Diana. I would love for us to be able to meet and reconnect. May God bless and comfort you and your family. Love and friendship never die.

“ *Aunt Anna Mae,
I just found out about Uncle David's passing. I am so very sorry for your and your families loss. I'll always remember Uncle David for his kind, gentle nature and his great sense of humor. I will miss him very much. My family and I will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers. My God bless you and your family in this difficult time. All my thoughts and love.
