“ When I saw David's obituary my first thoughts were " such a fine man". I am so sorry for your loss. I have known David since the late 80's teaching appraisal in Wise Co, and later appraising property here in Kingsport for my husband's estate. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family at this time!

“ Back in the early 1970's, I was a Vietnam veteran in Somerset, KY without a job. Dave gave me a job in his company appraising real estate. I've been appraising real estate ever since. Thank you Dave for the opportunity and all the assistance you provided me along the way. You're a great friend as well as a good and faithful servant of the Lord. You will be missed by many.

“ Our memory of David will be he got us interested in going to Belize, which we have done many times over the years and now we have a granddaughter from there. David had a big heart and wanted every Belizean to have a chance at a better life by coming to the US. He touched many lives thru the years and will be missed by all who knew him. RIP Dave.
