

Doris "Joe" Price

March 7, 1925 - December 16, 2015

Doris "Joe" Price, 90, of Jonesville, VA passed away on Wednesday, December 16, 2015 at his home surrounded by his family.

A native of Jonesville, he was a son of the late Hubert and Virgie Collins Smallwood. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by the love of his life for over 65 years, Gaynelle Morris Price.

Joe was a World War II veteran having served in the Army Air Corps. He was a founding member of Faith Baptist Church where he served as a deacon for decades.

He is survived by four daughters, Doris Young (Larry) of King, NC, Nita Witt of Jonesville, Deborah Phillips of Jonesville and Jolene Price-Thompson (Travis) of Portsmouth, VA; seven grandchildren, Jeff Dowis (Betsy), Stacy McGlamery (Shannon), Jordan Witt (Erynn), Amanda Price, Acelyn Garrett (Candace), Taylor Thompson and Madison Thompson; ten great-grandchildren, Leslie, Brianna, Tyler, Colin, Megan, Rhiannon, Sierra, Kaya, Alyla and Leah; one aunt, Ruth Collins; a special nephew, Shawn Morris and his wife Lisa, who provided a great deal of support during his illness; and hundreds of other nieces and nephews. Though Joe was an only child by birth, by marriage and in his heart, he became a brother to his wife's siblings, Mozelle, Bill, Blaine, Joyce, Johnny, Betty, Libby, Stanley, Melba and Dale.

The family will receive friends from 5 until 7:00 p.m. Sunday, December 20, 2015 at Robinette Funeral Home in Jonesville. The funeral service will follow at 7:00 p.m. with Rev. Mickey Gibson and Rev. Layne Pennington officiating. Private interment will be held in the McConnell Cemetery.

“ Uncle Joe called me "Jean Buck" all my life. Who knows where that came from. Growing up we kids stayed on the farm half the summer with tons of cousins and I remember one time there was about 5 of us kids on the front porch swing going sideways as high as we could take it and Uncle Joe came up the steps and gruffly said to me "what are you wearing girl?" I had on shorts which was almost a "no no" and I did not know if he was kidding or not so I went and put a dress on. Another time on the farm we were hauling hay, that was before we had the round baler and we had to pitch the square bales up on the wagon to take to the barn loft. I was getting ready to throw one up on the wagon where Joe is stacking and he says, "You're going to strain something (I won't say here what he actually said)" and I got so tickled I dropped the bale. This summer 2015 he came down to the river during the July 4th reunion, I ran up to the car to hug him and he said "I don't want your hug." I just smiled and said OK but I wanted yours. In a few minutes after he got out of the car, he not only hugged me but kissed my cheek. I cherish those memories. He tried so hard to appear gruff and tough but he was such a sweet heart and loved God and family. Uncle Joe you will be missed here on this earthly plain but the tears shed are really for us who are still here. We know you are in your new body and rejoicing with Aunt Nelle so we hold you in light and love.
