“ *You mother, Scotty, was a wonderful woman! She was bubbly, outgoing and sincerely friendly to everyone. She made the best pies! She sewed the most beautiful clothes! She kept the best clean house! I knew her through my father Glenn (Pete) Terry, who worked with your Dad, at the REA. When your mom used make clothing, she sewed the flower girl dress my niece, Kelly, wore in Lowell & Brenda Terry's wedding at the First Baptist Church in Jonesville almost 50 years ago. She made some clothes for me, too. What I remember most about her is her positive attitude, smiling face and her laugh. My thoughts are with you, Lewis and Shelby & your families, during this time. “ The first time I met Scotty was at a donkey ball game at Jonesville High School. Dad had already begun teaching and coaching there and we still lived in Pennington. I was being introduced to a number of Jonesville residents, kids and adults. It was Scotty's turn "at bat" and someone said "that is Scotty Oatts". I said something about Mrs. Oatts and everyone died laughing at me. Someone said "If you call her Mrs. Oatts, she won't know you are talking to her." We moved to Jonesville, started attending Jonesville United Methodist Church, played golf at Cedar Hills and Shelby was my "7th grade boyfriend". We became close friends with Scotty and her family and I quickly learned why calling her "Mrs. Oatts" would just not work. She was spirited and spunky, like no one else I have never known. She was always happy to see me and always had something funny to share with me. Her gregarious laughter made me chuckle, whether hearing it on the golf course or at church. Shelby and Doc, you and your families are in my heart and prayers during this time of grief. I know there are many golfers in Heaven right now that are enjoying lots of laughter with your mother!

“ The first time I met Scotty was in IGA. I knew from the get-go this lady was a firecracker. I would run into her at one of the dollar stores and we would stand and talk each time. I so enjoyed seeing her every time and wish I could've got to spend more time with her. This little lady made a big impression on me and I feel blessed to have met her. She is the only person I know that disliked milk so much that she used juice or pop for her cereal. Bless her heart. I will never forget her and I am so sad that she is no longer walking this earth. My sincerest and heartfelt condolences to her family. Please know that this special lady touched a lot of lives and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. May God bless you all.
