“ *I was so sorry to read of Eva's passing. The first time I met her was in the shop and she was pressing clothes and I began to help with some hangers. We began talking and every time I came up from Florida I would visit the shop and we would talk about Florida. Then one of those times I said , "Come and go with me , I'll have a van load with the kids and others but you can stay with us , we have plenty of room at our house ." I was so surprised when she said , "OK I'll be ready in the morning and in front of the shop". It was a roaring, loud , fun trip...and she loved it ...I have not seen her in awhile but I'll always have that as one of my memories...I know you have many to cherish...
With sincere and loving thoughts , Brenda Lamb*
