“ In memory of Ray my father-in-law. Ray was one of the most humble laid back men I ever knew. Ray and Ann raised 3 wonderful daughters one of which I married. I never remember him raising his voice to any of us three son-in-laws. Or being mad at any of us. Meals and Christmas at his house were great. I can still hear him say, Mary Lou why don't you cap us some corn. (Popcorn). Ray was like a Dad to me. So when you get up there tell my Dad I said hey. He liked you very much you know. How does it get any better than that?
