“ I first met Frank at the Rose Hill Church of God. It was always a pleasure to here him testify and sing. He loved the LORD and loved to sing I'll Fly Away....He has flown and now sings with the angles. Sure will be missed here. Love you Brother Frank.

Kitten loves you uncle Frank! I'll never forget your sweet face running towards me after I wrecked my car and carrying me to mamaw Dorothy's waiting on the ambulance to arrive to pick me up.

I remember Frank always singing and talking about the Lord when we used to have church down under the hill at his mother's house in Knox County, That's been over 17 years ago. Bless his heart.
