

Franklin Atom Starnes

March 3, 1946 - October 22, 2021

Franklin “FRANK” Atom Starnes, 75, of Jonesville, VA, passed away on Friday, October 22, 2021.

He was born on March 3, 1946 in Atlanta, GA to the late Roy and Viola Starnes. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his nephew, Chad Edward Starnes.

Frank was a native of Atlanta, GA, but moved to Johnson City, TN where he graduated from Science Hill High School in 1964. He received an honorable medical discharge from the US Navy and soon after married Linda Shull, a Washington County, TN native. He attended ETSU but later became a fireman while living in Roanoke, VA. Out of this profession grew a passion for service, and he moved his family – now including his daughter, Angela, to Jonesville, VA in efforts to begin his own business. He successfully served the Tri-State region for over 40 years with his company, Fire and Safety Supply.

Often known as the “Man In Red,” Frank not only volunteered as a firefighter for the Jonesville Fire Department, but also served the community as an inspirational little league baseball coach, a committed band booster, and a dedicated Boy Scout leader – earning The Silver Beaver Award for his distinguished years of service to youth. He was a member of Jonesville First Baptist, where for many years, he served as a deacon and leader of the Royal Ambassadors, a discipleship club for boys.

Frank loved to mentor young men and to give them opportunities to find their potential and learn essential life skills.

He was a devoted husband, loving father and committed friend – but his greatest joy was being a Grandfather. His grandson, John-Franklin, who was named in his honor, and his granddaughter Olivia stole his heart, made him laugh, and made him proud.

Frank is survived by his wife, Linda Starnes; daughter, Angela C. Swain and husband Matthew, of Kansas City, MO; grandchildren, John-Franklin Swain and Olivia Anne Swain, of Kansas City; brother, Edward Patrick Starnes and wife Connie, of Chattanooga, TN; nephew, Christopher J. Shull, of Johnson City, TN; great-nephew, Turner J. Shull, of Johnson City; along with many honorary sons and friends.

A celebration of his life will be held at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 28, at Jonesville First Baptist Church with Dr. Matthew Swain and Angela Swain officiating. The family will receive friends following the service. Committal services with military honors will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday October 29, at Mountain Home National Cemetery. Anyone wishing to attend is asked to meet at the cemetery in the new section, located at 215 Heroes Drive, Mountain Home, TN, 37684.

“ Linda,

Time and geography had gotten in the way as the years have gone so swiftly by and I have made my life in Arizona for now more than half my life. Somewhere back there many years ago, I did see and talk with Frank for a short moment. Oddly enough not more than a couple of days before I heard of Frank's passing that he came to mind and I tried to remind myself it was long overdue for me to seek Frank out once again. I'm sorry now I did not do that.

I must share one grand memory with Frank. Some time in the 60's (I think it was after high school), Frank and I had this great idea to build and launch a small houseboat. And that we did. Built in the Starnes driveway over several fun days and hauled to Boone Lake in the middle of the night. We continued to work on our project there, but then in the end we both abandoned our dream. But we did create quite a memory. Those were good times.

Obviously, what a great life Frank had that touched many. A good man.

“ Cowboy boots, big cowboy hat and black caddy with a trunk load of Billy Graham films. I remember Franks big laugh and love of the Lord. Since the late 60's, we have maintain some contact and each time it was as if time hadn't past. I loved him and will miss the opportunity to hear him laugh one more time.
To Linda and April. Life will be different, but so much fuller for having Frank in your life.
I can just hear God telling Frank to slow down. You have forever to enjoy time with me.
Blessings
