“ To Bobbie, Brenda, Sheila and Greta, Sorry for your loss Gary was a good man. I have some good memories back when we all come to visit. Gary always tried to get me involved and their daily chores. Like milking cows, working in the tobacco barn and my all time favorite was cutting the pigs. lol. Gary and denny talked me into a nightmare Gary said all you have to do is hold their back legs. I thought it sounded simple was I fooled. We will be thinking of you all prayers. love robert and Nancy, Kyle Richards

“ My deepest condolences to Mrs Graham and family. I've had the honor working with 2 of the 3 daughters, knowing this family all my life. Gary left this world knowing his daughters are 3 strong women that will watch over their mom. Gary fought a long, hard battle and now watches over all his family from a grandeur place in heaven. Fly high Gary!!

“ Allen and I express our deepest sympathy. It was always such a treat to visit the farm and see how the “old ways” were preserved through molasses stir-offs, hog killings, and grinding cornmeal for the most delicious cornbread ever. Gary and Bobbie were always so gracious and generous to us. We always felt welcomed and “at home” in their presence. We cherish those memories and our hearts are forever grateful for the kindness which was always shown to us. His was a beautiful life, well lived. Gary’s attention to all that is simple and good and beautiful will never be forgotten.
