“ My deepest sympathies to June's family.

I think my fondest memories of June are when he and Brandon would sit together in Church services. They would talk and I mean TALK, not whisper and laugh. And Beulah would give both of them THAT look and then look at me, as if I could help? Then when they both knew they were in trouble, they would go to sleep. Then I would dread if either one of them would start snoring, or jump and fall out of the seat. He has been missed.
