“ Harold was my cousin. I remember our childhood romps in Ligonier and Wilpen. We exchanged christmas cards and had occasional telephone conversations for many years. He played the bugle in the Ligonier High School Band....I played the sax. May God grant his family peace and love during this time of lose and sadness.

“ Harold was a joy to visit with. He was quick to point out the brighter side of any situation. I especially enjoyed his addition to their Christmas Cards. With each new grandchild, he would write "Oh, its going to be a big Christmas." Although miles away, it was easy to visualize him sitting with the kids on Christmas morning as he enjoyed their excitement of the day. Harold will be missed by all of us who loved him and we look forward to being reunited when we leave this earth.
