“ Growing up, Jack was a good role model to me. He picked me up before school and brought me home afterward so I could do part time janitorial work at the high school along side him and Ron. He was kind and always even keeled, but most of all, just genuinely likable. I no longer live in that neck of the woods, but his passing deeply saddens me. His spirit will be missed in life and in memory. I pray for his family, for comfort and peace. Gone but not forgotten. As I get older I realize that is the true meaning of life, being remembered. Rest in peace Jack, you are gone, but not forgotten.

Jack was always very kind to me. The whole family was. Always felt at home when I was there. Prayers for comfort for the family during this sad time. Heaven gained a true angel from this earth. Take peace in knowing we will see him again someday.
