

Jack Roop

March 8, 1939 - June 17, 2016

Jack Roop, 77, of Jonesville, VA passed away unexpectedly on Friday, June 17, 2016.

A native of Lee County, he was born March 8, 1939 to the late Jenis and Mabel Flanary Roop. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, William Patrick Roop, and by his daughter, Jackie Roop Evans.

Mr. Roop was a graduate of Lincoln Memorial University where he obtained his Bachelor of Science degree. He then went on to teach in the Harlan County, KY school system and in the the Lee County, VA school system at Blackwater High School, Jonesville High School and Lee High School. He also coached girls and boys basketball at Blackwater High and baseball and basketball at Jonesville High.

Jack is survived by his wife of nearly 55 years, Pat Burke Roop, and by his dear friends, Mike and Marsha Twigg and their children, Kristen and Tyler, as well as many other special friends.

The family would like to thank Dr. Scott Litton Jr. for his friendship and care.

A Celebration of Jack's Life will be held from 1 until 3:00 p.m. Tuesday, June 21, at Jonesville First United Methodist Church. A graveside service will immediately follow in Lee Memorial Gardens with Rev. Layne Pennington officiating.

Pallbearers will be Mike and Tyler Twigg, Lowell Williams, John Roop, Joe Cave and Richard Stapleton. Honorary pallbearer will be Carl Orr.
