“ To the Taylor and Seals families,

I am so deeply sorry to hear of your loss. I graduated high school with Jenny, and she was always so vibrant and full of life and energy. I had no idea that she had been sick, but I wish that I had known about it before this. I pray that the Comforter will strengthen and mend your broken hearts and give you peace.

“ Jenny was such a great worker for God. She sang with all her heart and was an inspiration to me. Her courage was phenomenal...

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

*Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord,
the righteous judge, shall give me at that day....2 Titus 4:7-8.*

Jenny I am so sure you are beautiful in your new crown!! My prayers go out to the family and may God give you the strength and peace that you need at this time.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of this pecious young lady. She shared her decorative talents with us at my daughter's wedding in September. I learned to love her smile, attituda and courage. I pray for stength and understanding for your family in the days ahead. May God surround you with his love through the love of others.
