“ I graduated with JC from Flatwoods High School Class of 1959. He was always polite, kind, somewhat shy, and always my friend. JC and I led the march of our class into our graduation ceremony because he was the tallest boy and I, the tallest girl. How times have changed. Classmates spoke of JC at our class reunion last Saturday. I send sympathy and love to all his family and pray for peace to carry you forward. Virginia Hedrick Spence
