“ To say that Johnny was a great person would not do him justice. Johnny Carroll was among the greatest people I have ever met. He could love without prejudice. He could help others without questions. Johnny was my favorite uncle and one of the only friends that I would allow myself to have. In a world of nothing but bad... Johnny made things alright. Seeing Johnny just made me smile before I could even speak to him. The small town of Rose Hill will never be the same without him..even though some people may not even realize it yet. I really miss you Johnny.. Will miss watching wrestling with you and will miss all of those text messages I got from you every time it came on. Peace be upon you!
