

John Paul Wagner

March 28, 1950 - April 2, 2015

John Paul Wagner, 65, of Jonesville, VA passed away on Thursday, April 2, 2015 at James Quillen V.A. Medical Center.

A native of Brooklyn, NY, he was a son of the late John and Mary Ginther Wagner.

John was a U.S. Navy Veteran who served during the Vietnam War. He was a member of the Preston Lodge #47 AF&AM and of the Jericho Shrine No. 180 in Kingsport, TN.

He was a photographer and artist who studied multimedia at the School of Visual Arts in New York. He was also an aspiring author, Kung-Fu Martial artist, expert marksman, electronics wizard and a ham radio operator. John was a unique and one of a kind man. He held a profound respect for the natural law of the universe and was very at peace with who he was and with his place on the planet.

He is survived by four siblings, Miriam Wagner of New York City, NY, Rosemary Taddeo of Silver Springs, FL, Peter Wagner of Eureka, CA and Stephen Wagner of Vancouver, BC.

A true animal lover, he is also survived by his dear friends, Abraham, Caterina

Puss, Red Sonja and Sammi Doodle.

The family will receive friends from 3 until 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 7, at Robinette Funeral Home of Jonesville. Masonic Funeral Rites will follow at 4:00 p.m.
