“ Judy B, we lost touch when I was younger, you were always known as the neighborhood "cool mom" we found you but waited to long to tell you we love you & miss you , when you meet my husband up therehe is a kind loving sole just as you are, give him a hug for me & tell him I love & miss him more than he will ever know, my brother James too, he will be waiting at the gates for you, love you Judy B.

“ *If you have a tender message,
Or a loving word to say,
Do not wait till you forget it,
But whisper it today;
The tender word unspoken,
The letter never sent,
The long forgotten messages,
The wealth of love unspent--
For these some hearts are breaking,
For these some loved ones wait;
So show them that you care for them
Before it is too late.
Judy B taught me that. I loved her like my own Mother she was so good to us. I will think of you always..*

“ I 'll never forget the first time I met Judy... I knew my brother Randy, finally got it right. She was a very artistic lady. I will forever treasure the quilt she made by hand for me. No sewing machine, all hand stitched. She saw beauty where others saw a mess. Judy had this great ability to transform any house into a home. I know my brother's heart is breaking, just as her children & grandchildren's hearts are breaking.. She knew something that a lot of people don't know.. She knew she had a Kingdom in Heaven waiting for her.. To all of her family & to Randy I am so very sorry for all of our loss. I love you Judy.. R.I P. Judy Wrona ,
