“ I first met Karen when her twins were babies. She was a dedicated mother and loved her boys more than anything. I did not know of her death until it was too late to attend the visitation. May she rest in peace. My sympathy to those who loved her and will miss her. June Etta Pillion

“ I worked with Karen at Lee County Social Services for 20 years and alot of good memories were made. She was a very hard worker and at times said the funniest things. I remember always being amazed with the fact she was so small but could out eat us all. Rest in peace sweet lady.
