“ With tears I read back the texts between Kathy and I over the past year. I would always text her cause I know she felt bad and didn't want to bother her every time i wanted to check in with her. She never complained. She would say she didn't feel good or she was tired, but never complained. She would ask how I was doing or tell me how Olivia was and how much she loves her, how proud of her, and all about the new baby that will arrive soon. A couple of months ago she talked about being being in lots of pain, but still never complaining I begged her to see other doctors, but i think she was tired. The last few texts was more of a peaceful tone. I think she accepted and was at peace. She loved her family more than anything. Olivia, I hope it helps you to know that She is no longer in pain and she will be with you as you go through life. She will be your guardian angel every step you take. Kathy was a beautiful person inside and out. She was a wonderful mother, sister, aunt, friend. I am so blessed to have shared so many memories with her through our college sorority years, working together at Goodys, and her introducing me to my wonderful husband of the last 15 years. Love you Kat.

“ Kat & I met on our cancer journeys during radiation. We were on the same schedule and quickly became inseparable. She was a warrior of epic proportions with no complaint. She was one of the strongest people I've ever met with a golden heart. We shared our secrets, our hopes and our dreams. I loved her as my family. I never doubted that she would beat this awful disease. I had absolute faith and I truly believe she did too. We may be separated in life but now she is our Angel in Heaven and knows no limit or pain. She touched my soul and I will forever carry her in my heart. I love you Kat.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this to the family. Kathy's family was everything to her. She loved you very much and had so many memories she shared with me. She adored her nieces and nephews as she did her own Olivia. It is so hard when you lose a mother, sister, and aunt so young. It shouldn't be that way. We walked in her honor as a team for "Kathy's Warriors" and now I will walk in her memory. I am so sorry I didn't have the opportunity to tell her how I have missed her. Rest in Peace dear lady.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss... Kathy was a wonderful, caring and giving person.
If any one was ever in need - she was always first to offer a helping hand.

May her loved ones find peace and comfort during this time of grief...
God Bless.
