Shirley, getting to know Kristina was a joy. We had so much fun working at the Associational building together. Her zest for life was contagious and what talks we had in the kitchen on break. I am going to miss her and the way she would smile .I know the Lord must have a very important job for her to do so she needed to go ahead of us. Her testimony was from a true believer of Jesus's amazing love. She was my friend. Happy Birthday Kristina on Friday. The stars will be your candles.

“ When we were sharing a room, I remember she would write word for word of the book she would read. What's funny, if she misspelled a word or mess up, she would rip out the pages, all of them to throw them away and start completely over.....My sweet sister was just that, sweet. And was such an outside type person, reading and coloring under a tree in the spring and summertime....Kristina, my dear sweet sister, you will be forever missed. I love you to the farthest galaxy to the deepest part of the ocean. Say hello to all the dear loved ones, expecially Dad.....Fly high sweet angel. 🙏❤️🌸
