“ So sorry to hear of Linda's death. Many fond memories of growing up with Linda in Ocoonita,going to school together on the bus, and going to church together. The Ferguson family were a big part of my early years. My prayers are with you as a family during this time of grief. May God embrace you in His tender arms of grace, and comfort you with the assurance that you will meet again, to never part. Love in Christ, David Mullins
