*I knew Linda in Pontiac, Michigan when she first married Dickie and me and my husband, Cletis Bishop, at the time, and Charles and Clercie Robbins were all having babies and helping each other to finish growing up. We had so much fun taking our kids to the parks, the drive-in movies, and to visit Ralph and Evelyn and Carl and Ethel Mae Robbins for cook outs. Linda was such a nice sweet easy going lady, loved Dickie and her kids so very much. Those were the good old days, we just didn't know it at that time. We lost touch after her and Dickie and their kids moved to VA. Rest in Peace my Friend.
In Loving memory, Judy Clark Shields.*
