

Maggie Jane Duncan Crumley

August 6, 1936 - March 2, 2023

Maggie Jane Duncan Crumley, 86, was born on August 6, 1936 to Eugene and Genie Duncan. She went to her Heavenly home to sit at the feet of Jesus at Lee County Community Hospital on March 2, 2023. She fought COPD a great many years of her life and the last few days she told all that she was going home to Jesus.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, TJ Crumley; daughter, Patricia Edds; son-in-law, Richard Garrett; brothers, Cecil Duncan and JC Duncan; sisters, Beatrice Collins, Billie Anne Muncy and Loretta Duncan Shell.

Surviving are her daughter, Sandra (Sandy) Garrett; her son Jeff, and wife, Kelly; her grandchildren, Keith Garrett and wife, Shelley and son, Christian, Kellie Garrett Eads and sons, Tyler and Zach, Megan Davis and husband, Steven and their daughter, Raya Jane (her namesake), Kyle Crumley, Thomas Tritt and sons, Bryan, Bradley and his wife, Linsey and Brady and his wife, Sidney, Anita Tritt and her children, Tiffany, Kendra and Andrew, Angela Tritt and children, Shawntay Mize, Josh Tritt and Michael Sexton Tritt, Tabitha Helbert and husband, Scottie and children, Jeremy, Colby, Cheyenne and Sharpei; a host of great- great grandchildren; nieces and nephews; her brother, L.V. Duncan and wife, Sue and their children, Joel and wife, Katrina, Matthew and wife, Ashley and son, Kenneth; honorable mention, sister-in-law, Ruby Bernice Blanken and many friends and loved ones. Even with such a large family, Maggie always found time to ensure each one knew how much she loved and cared for each of them. Love is showing, not vocalizing. Maggie lived most of her life in Lee County where she worked for multiple sewing factories until she retired. She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge #50 where she was the secretary. In her younger years, she spent her Saturday nights helping Jones Auction as bookkeeper while her husband, TJ, was a floor worker. In addition, she tended to tobacco with her husband which wasn't her first choice of jobs, but back then tobacco paid the bills and kept the lights on and made some Merry Christmas'. So many memories were had by all.

She loved to make quilts until her health no longer allowed. Maggie loved to cook and when asked how she made something, she took pride in keeping her recipes a secret by saying, "Ah, a little of this, a little of that". Her Sunday meals will be remembered forever in our hearts. She was a devoted Christian, wife, mother, grandmother and friend to all. She had the gift of gab and made friends everywhere she went. Her outgoing, over the top personality won the hearts of everyone she encountered in her life. Her view of life was having fun, laughing, and make someone else's day more cheerful. Those that knew Maggie can recount some type of story filled with laughter and smiles and few "spankings" along the way. She lived her life for the Lord and for her family. She will be greatly missed by all those that knew and loved her.

The family will receive friends from Noon until 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 4, 2023 at Robinette Funeral Home in Jonesville, VA. Funeral service will follow with Paul Davis, Jr. officiating. A graveside service will be conducted immediately following in the Millers Chapel cemetery.
