“ Aunt Mariella was a wonderful upbeat woman who could bring a whole room together with just her voice alone. I have fond memories of us celebrating every major holiday back when she lived in Orlando. I will always remember her long conversations with my dad (Charles) and helping my mom (Glenda) out in the kitchen. She was a natural leader with a gentle soul. When my Uncle Warren passed away, she helped take charge of getting things taken care of, and I regret that I couldn't do the same for her. May she forever rest in peace. Heaven should be grateful it gets to host a total sweetheart such as herself.
