“ To Ern - shall I give my sincere sympathy to you and the family. It has been so many years since we met, you probably have forgotten me, Ronald Gibbons, son of Leland and Willa Gibbons raised on Cedar Hill, the then young man now old man, who surveyed your land in the late 1970's. Time passes so fast we often wonder where did it go - only we know there is a home ahead where we'll meet again to never depart.

“ Our family is very sad that we have lost Mary. Remember her always smiling at the family reunions. We are praying for Uncle Ern and the whole family. So sorry we could not attend the services.
