

Mary Vivian Campbell Seale

September 6, 1927 - June 13, 2017

Potomac, MD

On Tuesday, June 13, 2017, Mary Vivian Campbell Seale, died peacefully at HCR ManorCare in Potomac, Maryland. Beloved wife of the late Henry Seale, loving mother of Linda S. Kikuchi, cherished grandmother of Kimberly D. Doering, and proud great grandmother of Samantha (Sam) E. Doering and Patrick M. Doering Jr. Vivian is also survived by many loving relatives and friends.

Vivian was born in Rose Hill, Lee County, Virginia on September 6, 1927 to Joseph Taylor and Annie Campbell and graduated from Thomas Walker High School. She was one of eleven children: Henry, Calvin, Flora, Joseph, Vivian, Betty Gein, Armour, Jewel, George, Zelma and Thelma.

After marriage, Vivian and Henry moved to Montgomery County, Maryland where they enjoyed long and successful careers with the U.S. Government and at The David Taylor Model Basin, now known as the Naval Research and Development Center. With her irrepressible personality, she was always cherished as a close friend and valuable co-worker. In a dream come true, Vivian and Henry retired to Rose Hill and with the help of family and friends, they built their own home adjacent to the home of her childhood.

Family will receive friends from 1:00PM until 2:00PM at Robinette Funeral

Home, Rose Hill, VA on Saturday June 17, 2017. Funeral services will follow from the funeral home chapel with Rev. Robert Charles Long officiating. Interment will follow in the Campbell Cemetery, Rose Hill, VA where Vivian will be laid to rest next to her beloved Henry.
