“ Dear Fugate/Shandrick Family, We are sending you our love and sincere sympathy at Maureen's death. Just yesterday (May 4), the April 8 edition of The Powell Valley News arrived with her obituary. We both remember her fondly, as we do the rest of her family. She was Dan's TWHS English teacher. (He was in the TWHS Class of 1950.) He recognized her from the picture. I see her as looking a lot like her Father/wonderful smile. It is hard to realize that we are losing important parts of our past. To Harry and Bacon, especially, and to Anne (who we knew OF) we send Condolences. Fondly, Dan Seale (John's son) and Rita Ritchie Seale (H.T.'s daughter)

Ann, I just learned of your mother's passing. I am so sorry. She was always such an attractive lady. I remember when my brother & sister went to Thomas Walker when she taught. I know you will miss her. You & your family are in our prayers.
