“ My name is Katherine Wallen Cantwell and I work at the Hancock County TN. Historical Society. He would visit us about twice a year and we enjoyed his visits so much and will certainly miss him. Not only was he a great writer, poet, and a good servant of God, but was a great artist as well. We would sit and talk of old times around Kyles Ford. My father had the store by the river bridge. Millard's father in law, Leonard Willis was one of our best workers for years. I remember his wife June really well. She was a good woman too! On one of his visits I made a video of him telling funny stories about Lloyd Wallen (my great uncle). I am so happy I recorded him. Millard was a wonderful storyteller too!!! Rest in peace until we meet again!!!! 🥹🙏

“ So loved this cousin! His mother and my father were siblings. Milliard Ray was such a warm and caring man who was also a talented writer. We visited with each other much more often when we younger and our parents were living. I will never forget this special cousin.
