I love you brother so much and I miss you so much more it's been so hard ever since I lost you bro nothing has been the same I've lost so much and I don't understand why this is I just don't know what to do brother maybe it's God punishing me for all my wrong doing idk? Brother but I do know i miss you so much and I wish I could just talk to you about everything that's happened because I know that you would know what I'm supposed to be doing I thought I knew what my purpose was in life but know I'm not so sure brother? I said I've lost alot but that's not the truth the truth is I've lost everything everything that is most important to me and it's more than I can bear I say and act like I'm fine but the truth is I'm not strong enough this time God knows I've tried I really have and I still am but for how much longer? And well brother when you got took I was having a hard time dealing I guess I didn't want to believe it i still don't but everyone would always say your still here I don't know how many times I've been told that but every time was the same way the same feeling having you in my heart is not the same is having you in my life you was my best friend and brother and I'll never forget that all the years of memories I have of us of you not one single time can I recall where you wasn't there for me you was the best friend and brother anyone could ever imagine having so anyways bro what I was thinking was I'm out of options and road with nowhere to turn and maybe your up there looking down here at us and if so maybe you listen to this and if you are bro I was just wanting to see if you can maybe pull some strings with the big man and see if he can maybe help me because if you are up there then that means that the big man is to and I know that there's no way God could have you up there and not be your good friend you have that affect with everybody you meet it's one of the things I miss the most and brother im so sorry I've not been to see and talk to your mom and dad I feel so bad and guilty about I've always thought us so much like real blood brother that they was my parents to and I know I was always treated as family and I wanted to go up there so many times but I think I felt like I betrayed mama by not being there as much as I should have been but I didn't know how to deal myself with you gone and I was afraid I would have messed that up too and made it harder on them idk I'm sorry

“ As kids, Neal, Carry, my older brother Eric and I would team up to play basketball. There was a time I had went a long period without seeing him. For those who don't know, we were cousins through marriage but that didn't stop us from being family when my mother and stepdad divorced. I had missed him dearly and now I will always have to miss him. I imagined how it would be reuniting again but when I heard what happened, my images were shattered. I pray that Sheila, Roger and Carry can make it through this time with all the love, comfort, and strength that God had to offer. I love you Neal and I wish I could say one final goodbye but I never wanted to say goodbye to begin with.

“ Hello I am Angel Middleton. I and Jessie had classes with Neal in High school. I will always remember him being a sweet person who we would joke with in class. Us three would always make each other laugh and we help each other in homework. Jessie knew him the most mind you but what little I knew was that he seemed to be a sweet kind Free spirit. My condolences to his mom and dad, I know from experience what a death like this can do. My Aunt lost my cousin Eric and it was most devistating. I know right now you are going through a very dark time, and in this time I hope and pray that you find a way to get through.
