“ There is so much to share of Nina. She had a heart of gold and loved everyone she knew. Sunday dinners at Golden and Nina's were always the best and stay my most memorable moments. You won't ever find better fried chicken no matter where you could ever go. It breaks my heart to see our family dwindling down as God is gathering them 1 by 1 for that great reunion in the sky. I know Nina missed all her siblings. And it thrills my heart that she's got her phone call from daddy again, and I know they are talking up a storm and prasing God together. The heartbreak our family has gone thru in this past year and the last few months, is most days unbearable. But joy will come in the morning. I'm thankful to know I'll join that Moore reunion one glad day. Nina will be missed by all, just as all the other Moore family members that have gone on to glory. Prayers for all my family. Love you all.

I am so deeply sorry to hear that Nina has passed away yet I know that Lewis and Golden were standing by the throne of God when he told her come take my hand and rejoice with me. Nina and Golden took me into their home and helped me in more ways than anyone will ever know I remember being told there is only 4 things in life that were important and for me to never forget 1 God 2 church 3 family and 4 education. I was shown nothing but unconditionally love. I have taken up quilting and I can hear those words of encouragement from these beautiful Ladies. I know that I to will get to reach out to the hand of God and what a blessing it will be to be with all the family 🙏 prayers for all of Ninas family and friends
