“ Sweet Penny. I remember her from when she was a little girl and her daddy, Pearl Clifton, would bring her to my granddaddy's grocery store (William Gobble's Grocery), on Hwy #58, just maybe a mile down from her house. She always had the sweetest smile and was so sweet herself. At that time, they attended the church in that community, Chance's Chapel, where we would go when we were visiting from Ohio. Sweet memories. Praying for all the family. It is never easy to say goodbye to our loved ones, but just think of who she is saying hello to! Jesus!
