Joyce, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Mr. Williams was a very nice man. We always had long talks about church and the Lord. I will miss him coming in the office but maybe we will see him next week. LOL!

“ My sweetest Joyce, I have known you and Raymond for many years, and I never once saw Raymond without a smile on his face. He just sort of glowed with his love of his fellow man and God. He was such a special man to everyone who ever met him. He was such a shining light in the world, and now I know he is lighting up the throne of God!

“ My prrecious Joyce, please know that you are in my prayers and on my heart. My family is also saddened by Raymond"s passing. I called my Mother to tell her. She said Raymond never failed to mention the Lord every time they spoke. I told her he had witnessed to me also on many occassions. We rejoice just knowing where he is now. Heaven gained a very special man.
