“ We have lived next to Rodney and Delores since 2005. We talked over the fence a lot and I occasionally helped Rodney with a few chores and problems. We were not real close friends, but good neighbors usually make pretty good friends. Rodney will be missed and Delores knows that she can always call us for anything.

I really enjoyed hearing him teach and preach the four years that I lived in Rosehill. After asking me about my parents, he kept telling me that I was surrounded by family from my mother's side. I was too young at that time to really understand or appreciate how right he was. I'll always regret not following up with the knowledge he offered me.
