“ Ruthie, I am so, so happy I met you as a co-worker, but more as a "mom". You had 5 great children, one of whom I am very close to. Ray, Gary, Mary, Dave, Mark and Tim, I love you all and am so sorry for this loss. Ruthie was such a special, warm, loving person in her work and with her family. I didn't get to see her much these last years, but thought about Ruthie and Ray quite often. Sleep in peace, Ruthie. You will be so missed. Mary & John, I love you!!

“ The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched; they must be felt with the heart. Aunt Ruth touched many hearts with her kind words and warm smiles. Visits by her family were a summer highlight for my siblings and me when we were growing up in VA. As the mother of five children, Aunt Ruth always seemed to have a sleeping child in her arms. So it was no surprise to find her holding my own sleeping children at the Depew reunions. I am thankful for the treasure trove of memories. May she rest in peace.
