“ My name is James R. Torrence, and I was fortunate to have Mr. Cecil as my 5th grade instructor at Faith Intermediate in Fort Benning, Ga . Good sense of humor and always fair, great teacher. If memory serves me correct he was a student of karate and inspired me in my participation in Judo. Just good memories of Mr. Cecil and his wife Louise who I never had the pleasure to actually meet but I believe I saw her when our school met President Lyndon B. Johnson. Only good memories of Mr. Cecil. To the Cecil Family my sincerest condolences please be safe.

I was very sorry to hear of Sam's passing. He was a dear friend since I first met him in 1996. I last saw him just a couple of weeks ago and like always he put his hand on my shoulder and said, "Here, listen to this..." as he proceeded to tell a joke. Sam will be greatly missed.
