“ Sheila (or "Nan" as she was know to a lot of her neighbors) was a sweet sould who was beloved by all of us in the Frog Level community. She was always sweet and friendly, and like a second grandmother to all of us who grew up in the "holler". She loved to crochet, and I will forever treasure the afgans she made me and my family over the years. Goodbye, Nan! May you rest in peace knowing you will be greatly missed and remembered by so many.

“ Sheila, you were like a sister to me. I knew you since I was in third grade. Plus I met your sister Theresa the same way in school. My mom and your mom worked together at Ben Franklin five and dime store so they also knew each other. Because of all of this when we needed to find a home to move to, we picked the house that was next to you. At the time, I didn't know that it was where you guys lived. But my mom knew because she knew your mom. It was a wonderful, wonderful surprise and we were friends forever. Going to school going to dances Going to the bowling alley to bowl doing everything together Halloween. We were at your house Christmas Eve Christmas Day during hurricanes we stayed at your house because you had better awnings than we did next-door. I took a picture of you at your wedding and when you had your baby Cassie. Then you moved into the house next to that on the corner and I used to go over. See you all the time. I even brought Cassie to Disney World one time because she had never been there, and I drove all the way up myself. She was probably very scared. She was very young, but she was excited at the same time wanting to go there. I remember our sleepovers too and then we got into boys. Sheila, I will always remember you with extreme love. And I love your kids to pieces and will always keep in communication with them because I know you are because you've gained your wings. Heaven has a new angel and her name is Sheila Smith kindle. Love you

Sorry your last name was Ramsey. I couldn't go back and change it. It didn't give me the chance to do that. I wish I could change it.

“ Shelia’s passing came as a profound shock to all who knew her . I had the privilege of working alongside Shelia for many years at the Powell River Baptist Compassion Center where she demonstrated a willingness to help whenever she was needed. Her contributions were especially evident at our Annual Shoe Fair where she volunteered to help to get shoes out to the children of Lee County. My deepest sympathies are with Shelia’s family during this difficult time. We will forever remember her laughter when we would take a break and meet in the kitchen for hotdogs and snacks. From all of the team at the center we will keep you in our prayers. 💔Kathy and Elb Peters. Lynnette Johnson. Sue Crabtree Linda Cooper. Shirley Duncan.
